University of Suffolk Undergraduate Bursaries 2025-26

Important Information

- These Terms and Conditions apply to students who begin their studies from 25-26.
- University of Suffolk Bursaries are automatically assessed.
- They are paid in two instalments dependent on continued engagement with a course.
- They are for a maximum of 3 years or 3 levels of study for part-time students.
- On enrolment, students are asked to securely share their bank information to enable payment. Students can decline to give their bank details but are advised that this will result in any bursary they are eligible for will not be paid.

What is a bursary?

University bursaries are usually awarded to students who need more financial help. They may offer support due to a students' personal circumstances or a low family income. Bursaries can help students go to university who might not otherwise be able to attend. Bursaries do not need to be repaid.

What University of Suffolk bursary schemes do these terms and conditions apply to?

- University of Suffolk Bursary: Student who have been identified as having a home address from the IMD Q1 areas[1].
- Care Leavers Bursary: Students who are living in, or have previously lived in, local authority care, could be eligible for a Care Leavers Bursary.
- Estranged Students Bursary: Students who are recognised as estranged by their funder e.g. Student Finance England, could be eligible for an Estranged Student Bursary.

Students must meet all eligibility requirements outlined below to be awarded the bursary.

Terms & Conditions

University of Suffolk Bursaries are automatically assessed against the criteria outlined below and applied under the following terms and conditions:

- Each bursary is for the amount of £500 per level of study beginning at level 4 and for a maximum of 3 years or 3 levels of study for part-time students.
- Students will be automatically reassessed for this bursary every year. In the event a previously eligible student receives a ‘not eligible’ outcome upon automatic reassessment, the award will cease.
- If the student is intercalating from studies, no payment will be awarded during this period, however the application will be auto assessed upon return to study.

[1] The IMD Q1 areas means you live in a neighbourhood that is assessed as being in a lower quintile in the Governments Indices of Multiple Deprivation. As part of our Access and Participation Plan we have identified students with home addresses in these areas to provide financial aid.

- If identified as a Care Leaver students will not be eligible for the Estranged Student bursary.
