This definitive record sets out the essential features and characteristics of the PgC Academic Practice course. The information provided is accurate for students entering level 7 in the 2017-18 academic year<sup>5</sup>.

Course Summary

The programme offers a discursive, interdisciplinary, collaborative and reflective learning environment in which students will scrutinise aspects of academic practice, especially in relation to teaching and support of student learning in higher education. The programme encourages students to inspect, critique, develop and reflect upon professional practice within an increasingly complex and ever-changing HE environment. It promotes the sharing of experiences and reflection upon those experiences, while engaging with the perspectives of others including tutors, peers and mentors.

Course Aims

- Explore and advance an informed and critical understanding of different approaches to, and conceptions of, learning, teaching and assessment practice within the contemporary and changing Higher Education environment.
- Encourage focused and critical reflection on the support of learning, teaching, academic management and scholarly practice with a view to its ongoing and continual improvement.

<sup>1</sup> For an explanation of the levels of higher education study, see the QAA Frameworks for Higher Education Qualifications of UK Degree-Awarding Bodies \(2014\)

<sup>2</sup> All academic credit awarded as a result of study at the University adheres to the Higher education credit framework for England.

<sup>3</sup> Where the course is delivered both full-time and part-time, the standard length of course is provided for the full-time mode of attendance only. The length of the part-time course is variable and dependent upon the intensity of study. Further information about mode of study and maximum registration periods can be found in the Framework and Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Awards.

Awards

On successful completion of the course, students will be awarded a PgC Academic Practice.

Course Delivery

The course is delivered at the University of Suffolk at East Coast College (Lowestoft). Students studying part-time on PgC Academic Practice are likely to have approximately 40 contact hours. The contact hours will be a mix of workshop approaches focused on learning and teaching in HE (including lectures, seminars, and practical group activity) and online independent and collaborative activities. Students will normally be expected to undertake 4 hours of independent study in an average week, but should be prepared for this to vary based on assignment deadlines and class exercises.

Course Assessment

A variety of assessments will be used on the course to enable students to experience and adapt to different assessment styles. The assessment methods used will be appropriate to assess each module's intended learning outcomes. Assessment on the course overall will be 100% coursework, primarily via reports derived from, for example, presentations, group activities, reflective learning journals and research projects.

Course Team

The academic staff delivering this course are drawn from a team that includes teaching specialists and current practitioners. All staff are qualified in their subjects with their own specialist knowledge to contribute.
