business operations, leadership and management. Students will study modules that cover these basic functions as well as having the opportunity to pursue areas of interest and specialism through the selection of optional modules and their dissertation topic. As students progress into the second and third years they will meet more business people and will work on real-life cases, live projects and develop their abilities through the use of problem-based and other creative learning methods.

As students progress through the course, the focus of teaching and support will switch from introducing students to key concepts and the latest thinking in core management disciplines to the application of this knowledge in real business scenarios. This design helps to ensure that by the time our students graduate they are ready for the workplace not just able to secure work, but able to make a positive impact from their very first day. We describe this as being 'business ready'.

The additional sandwich year at the end of Level 5 enables students to engage in professional placement (either in the UK or overseas) and study abroad, each for one semester. The professional placement provides a valuable opportunity for students to put theory into real-life practice, enhancing their skills and understanding of the business environment and expanding their professional networks. Study abroad enables students to develop relevant marketable skills, immerse themselves into another language and culture and enhance their personal development.

Course Aims

- To provide students with a systematic understanding of key aspects of business management through a coherent and integrated programme of study
- To develop conceptual understanding that enables students to: devise and sustain arguments; use established techniques of analysis to solve problems; and describe and comment on current research in business management
- To prepare students for a career in business and/or management by developing personal and professional skills that will support communication, group interaction, information finding, analysis and problem solving during their period of study consistent with the development of 'business-ready graduates'
- To provide students with a valuable and positive learning experience in their academic studies
