This definitive record sets out the essential features and characteristics of the BA (Hons) Childhood and Family Studies course. The information provided is accurate for students entering level 4 in the 2018-19 academic year<sup>5</sup>.

Course Summary

The programme focuses on the multi-disciplinary nature of the study of childhood and the family, which embraces diverse academic disciplines such as sociology, cultural and political studies, education, psychology, social policy and health. Such inclusion allows for the diverse, multi-faceted experiences of children and their families to be explored, contextualised and interrogated through the application of social science perspectives.

Course Aims

1. To develop students' systematic knowledge and understanding of the conceptual underpinnings of both childhood and the family from a range of perspectives and disciplines.

<sup>1</sup> For an explanation of the levels of higher education study, see the QAA Frameworks for Higher Education Qualifications of UK Degree-Awarding Bodies \(2014\)

<sup>2</sup> All academic credit awarded as a result of study at the University adheres to the Higher education credit framework for England.

<sup>3</sup> Where the course is delivered both full-time and part-time, the standard length of course is provided for the full-time mode of attendance only. The length of the part-time course is variable and dependent upon the intensity of study. Further information about mode of study and maximum registration periods can be found in the Framework and Regulations for Undergraduate Awards.
