This definitive record sets out the essential features and characteristics of the FdA Early Years Practice course. The information provided is accurate for students entering level 4 in the 2017/18 academic year.

Course Summary
The Foundation degree in Early Years Practice (FdA EYP) is a work-based programme that enables those working with young children to progress towards graduate status. The underlying theme of the course is based on an informed approach to the academic study of early childhood and focuses on facilitating professional development through the process of reflection. Each module will develop the student’s ability to explore, discuss, analyse, evaluate and develop their practice with regard to theory, research policy and recognised good practice. We welcome applications from those working within the childcare sector and from students who may not have childcare experience but wish to enter this field. The course is suitable for those wishing to enhance their career prospects and also as a pathway to primary school teaching and to Early Years Professional Status. The FdA EYP provides students with an opportunity to enhance their knowledge and understanding of theoretical week (part-time) of work placement. Students will be expected to find their own placement: this can be employed or on a voluntary basis. Students will normally be expected to undertake 10 hours per week of independent study in an average week, but should be prepared for this to vary based on assignment deadlines and class exercises.

Course Assessment
A variety of assessments will be used on the course to enable students to experience and adapt to different assessment styles. The assessment methods used will be appropriate to assess each module’s intended learning outcomes. Assessment on the course overall will be 100% coursework (including portfolios, essays, presentations, evaluations, reflective reports and group work). Reflection on work-based practice and skills audits will be required.

Course Team
The academic staff delivering this course are drawn from a team that includes teaching specialists and current practitioners. All staff are qualified in their subjects with their own specialist knowledge to contribute.
