Course Summary

The Foundation degree in Early Years Practice (FdA EYP) is a work-based programme that enables those working with young children to progress towards graduate status. The underlying theme of the course is based on an informed approach to the academic study of early childhood and focuses on facilitating professional development through the process of reflection. Each module will develop the student's ability to explore, discuss, analyse, evaluate and develop their practice with regard to theory, research policy and recognised good practice. We welcome applications from those working within the childcare sector and from students who may not have childcare experience but wish to enter this field. The course is suitable for those wishing to enhance their career prospects and also as a pathway to primary school teaching and to Early Years Professional Status. The FdA EYP provides students with an opportunity to enhance their knowledge and understanding of theoretical ideas associated with the care, learning and development of young children. It develops the values and beliefs necessary for those working with children with essential knowledge and understanding of regulatory and legislative frameworks. As an employment-based learning course, students will require the support of their employer to successfully complete the qualification. Learners will also need to identify a workplace mentor who will provide professional support, guidance and advice and be a 'critical friend' where appropriate. Where possible, the mentor will be based in the Early Years setting working at a senior level and may be asked to authenticate/verify the work-based elements of the programme.

Course Aims

- To engage in work based learning to develop skills and knowledge to support professional practice
- Develop knowledge and a critical understanding of the care, learning and development of young children
- Develop knowledge and understanding of appropriate values and beliefs for working in the Children's Workforce
- Develop a critical awareness of research methods
- Develop knowledge and a critical understanding of the regulatory and legislative framework for the Children's Workforce
- Develop key transferable and employability skills
- Provide opportunities for reflection and development of personal and professional skills whilst working with young children
