Course Summary

The FdA Early Years Practice is a career and qualifications pathway specifically for practitioners who have already acquired significant experience of working with young children or are about to embark on working with young children. Students may be working in a variety of settings such as a school, pre-school or after school club. The outcomes of the Foundation Degree programme cover both general ideas about early years care and education as well as more specific ideas related to practice in particular settings.

<sup>1</sup> For an explanation of the levels of higher education study, see the QAA Frameworks for Higher Education Qualifications of UK Degree-Awarding Bodies \(2014\)

<sup>2</sup> All academic credit awarded as a result of study at the University adheres to the Higher education credit framework for England.

<sup>3</sup> Where the course is delivered both full-time and part-time, the standard length of course is provided for the full-time mode of attendance only. The length of the part-time course is variable and dependent upon the intensity of study.
