Course Delivery

The course is delivered at a number of schools and other centres across Norfolk and Suffolk including the University of Suffolk. Trainees studying full-time on the PGCE [Suffolk & Norfolk Secondary SCITT) are likely to have approximately 192 or more contact hours. The contact hours will be a blend of lectures, seminars and tutorials and trainees will also be required to participate in at least 130 days of work placement in partnership schools in Suffolk and Norfolk. Placements will be arranged by the course team. Trainees will normally be expected to undertake 15 hours of independent study in an average week, but should be prepared for this to vary based on assignment deadlines and class exercises.

Trainees studying part time will complete the same number of contact hours and placement days but these will be spread over 2 years.

Course Assessment

A variety of assessments will be used on the course to enable trainees to experience and adapt to different assessment styles. The assessment methods used will be appropriate to assess each module's intended learning outcomes. Assessment on the course overall will be approximately 30% coursework (including assignments, reports, and research projects) and 70% practical assessments of teaching in the classroom.

Course Team

The academic staff delivering this course are drawn from a team that includes teaching specialists and current practitioners. All staff are qualified in their subjects with their own specialist knowledge to contribute and are registered with the Department of Education as teachers.

Course Costs

Trainees undertaking PGCE [Suffolk & Norfolk Secondary SCITT] on the Tuition route will be charged tuition fees in accordance with Suffolk & Norfolk Secondary SCITT.

Trainees undertaking PGCE [Suffolk & Norfolk Secondary SCITT] on the Salaried route will have their QTS course fees paid by government grant but will be charged fees for the PGCE and M Level elements of their course in accordance with Suffolk & Norfolk Secondary SCITT.

Trainees will be expected to fund their own travel costs for journeys to and from school placements/centre based training/enrichment visits.
