Course Summary

The Professional Graduate Certificate in Education is a professional qualification for people teaching in the Education and Training Sector e.g. further education colleges, sixth form colleges, adult education, community learning and a wide range of other training and educational settings. As from 01 April 2012, following government approval, teachers who qualify in the LLS, and go on to achieve QTLS status are eligible to teach in the schools sector.

The course is designed to develop a range of skills and knowledge required of a professional teacher in the Education and Training Sector. The programme places a significant emphasis on students developing the appropriate skills and knowledge they require to meet the needs of the learner. The fundamental principles of practice are underpinned by reference to theoretical perspectives, thus encouraging students to effectively link theory to practice. This is expected of a professional who can engage with the identification and articulation of issues associated with the teaching in the sector.

Course Aims

The programme aims to develop the following academic skills in trainees:

- To provide trainees with a wide range of intellectual resources, theoretical perspectives and academic disciplines to illuminate understanding of education within the context of their subject specialism and beyond.

- To provide trainees with a broad and balanced knowledge and critical understanding of the principal features of education in a wide range of contexts to prepare them for future careers in a range of potential settings.

- To encourage trainees to interrogate educational processes in a wide variety of contexts.

- To develop in trainees the ability to construct and sustain a reasoned argument about educational issues in a clear, lucid and coherent manner.

- To promote a range of qualities in trainees including intellectual independence, critical thinking, innovation and creativity and engagement with research based practice.

\(^5\) The University reserves the right to make changes to course content, structure, teaching and assessment as outlined in the Admissions Policy.
To promote the development wider personal development of each trainee relevant to their teaching and professional context. This may include developing competency in maths and English, instilling leadership and management skills, developing a better understanding of global and cultural issues and other features required of professional training.

Awards
On successful completion of the course, students will be awarded a Professional Graduate Certificate in Education.

Course Delivery
The course is delivered at the University of Suffolk at Suffolk New College. Students studying full-time on Professional Graduate Certificate in Education are likely to have approximately 48 contact hours for level 4, 88 contact hours for level 5 and 110 contact hours for level 6. The contact hours will be a mix of lectures, seminars, workshops, and tutorials and students will also be required to participate in 150 hours of work placement. Placements on the full-time programme will be arranged by University of Suffolk. Students will normally be expected to undertake 15 hours of independent study in an average week, but should be prepared for this to vary based on assignment deadlines and class exercises.

Course Assessment
A variety of assessments will be used on the course to enable students to experience and adapt to different assessment styles. The assessment methods used will be appropriate to assess each module’s intended learning outcomes. Assessment on the course overall will be approximately 75% coursework (including essays, reports, presentations, group work, reflective learning journals and research projects) and 25% practical assessments. Both elements must be passed in order to pass the course.

Modules are designated as either mandatory (M), requisite (R) or optional (O). For definitions, see the Framework and Regulations for Initial Teacher Training (Lifelong Learning Sector) Awards.
