Course Delivery

The course is delivered at Ipswich (with the exception of the sandwich year, during which students are based at their chosen host institution). For course delivery in Ipswich, students studying full-time on BA (Hons) Tourism Management (with Study Abroad) are likely to have approximately 250 contact hours for level 4, 220 contact hours for level 5 and 150 contact hours for level 6. The contact hours will be a mix of lectures, seminars, practical activity, group projects and students will also be required to participate in 200 hours of work placement. Placements may be arranged by the University of Suffolk and/or students and approved by the University. Students will normally be expected to undertake 20 hours of independent study in an average week, but should be prepared for this to vary based on assignment deadlines and class exercises.

DEFINITIVE COURSE RECORD

Study abroad course delivery will be dependent on the requirements of the host institution. In addition, for the reflective account for a full year of study abroad, students will be expected to engage in 390 hours of independent study and 10 hours of tutorials and online support

Course Assessment

A variety of assessments will be used on the course to enable students to experience and adapt to different assessment styles. The assessment methods used will be appropriate to assess each module's intended learning outcomes. Assessment on the course overall (excluding the sandwich year) will be coursework (including essays, reports, presentations, group work, reflective learning journals and research projects). The nature of the assessment of the sandwich year will depend on the type of activities undertaken: assessment of study abroad will vary according to the requirements of the host institution.

Course Team

The academic staff delivering this course are drawn from a team that includes teaching specialists and current practitioners. All staff are qualified in their subjects with their own specialist knowledge to contribute.
