This definitive record sets out the essential features and characteristics of the BA (Hons) Tourism Management course. The information provided is accurate for students entering level 4 in the 2019-20 academic year\(^5\).

Course Summary
The Tourism Management programme is designed to give students as wide an experience as possible in the tourism and related sectors; which offer so many opportunities for growth and contribution to the economy. Students will gain many skills and competencies to help to ensure employability is enhanced. A combination of theoretical and practical work will prepare students for further study or employment. Established effective partnerships with a range of employers in the sectors ensure that students benefit from having a balance of practical work-based experience to evaluate and analyse in their academic life.

Course Aims
- To enable students to have a critical understanding of the concepts and characteristics of tourism

Awards

On successful completion of the course, students will be awarded a BA (Hons) Tourism Management. Students who leave the course early may be eligible for a DipHE Tourism Management on successful completion of 240 credits including all mandatory modules at levels 4 and 5, or a CertHE Tourism Management on successful completion of 120 credits including all mandatory modules at level 4.

Course Delivery

The course is delivered at Ipswich. Students studying full-time on BA (Hons) Tourism Management are likely to have approximately 250 contact hours for level 4, 220 contact hours for level 5 and 150 contact hours for level 6. The contact hours will be a mix of lectures, seminars, practical activity and group projects, and students will also be required to participate in 200 hours of work placement. Placements may be arranged by the University and/or students and approved by the University. Students will normally be expected to undertake 20 hours of independent study in an average week, but should be prepared for this to vary based on assignment deadlines and class exercises.

Course Assessment

A variety of assessments will be used on the course to enable students to experience and adapt to different assessment styles. The assessment methods used will be appropriate to assess each module’s intended learning outcomes. Assessment on the course overall will be coursework (including essays, reports, presentations, group work, reflective learning journals and research projects).

Course Team

The academic staff delivering this course are drawn from a team that includes teaching specialists and current practitioners. All staff are qualified in their subjects with their own specialist knowledge to contribute.
