Course Delivery, Assessment and COVID-19
Our guiding principles for delivery during the 2020-21 academic year will be based around a rich blended learning environment, which will include some online delivery of lectures as well as face to face delivery of seminars, lab work and tutorials as applicable. Where possible assessment will be undertaken as planned and where this is not possible, e.g. on-site examinations, an equivalent assessment will be made available to students. We do not intend to have a fully online academic year for any of our students.

Our campus will be safe and welcoming for new and returning students, but we will observe – as all universities must – the government guidance in place at the time and so the delivery and assessment statements below are under continuous review as circumstances change.

Course Delivery
The course is delivered at Ipswich and at Partner Colleges as required. Participants studying part-time on PgC Academic Practice are likely to have approximately 40 contact hours. The contact hours will be a mix of workshop approaches focused on learning and teaching in HE (including lectures, seminars, and practical group activities) but will also include online independent and collaborative activities. Participants will normally be expected to undertake 4 hours of independent study in an average week, but should be prepared for this to vary based on assignment deadlines and workshop or online activities.

Course Assessment
A variety of assessments will be used on the course to enable participants to experience and adapt to different assessment approaches. The assessments used will be appropriate to assess each module’s intended learning outcomes. Assessment on the course overall will be 100% coursework, including reflective reports derived from, online and group activities, learning journals and research projects.

Special Features
This programme is accredited by the Higher Education Academy (HEA) and is fully aligned with the UK Professional Standards Framework (UKPSF). Students who successfully complete the course meet Standard Descriptors 1 & 2 of the UKPSF.

Course Team
The academic staff delivering this course are drawn from a team that includes teaching specialists and current practitioners. All staff are qualified in their subjects with their own specialist knowledge to contribute.
