Course Summary

The Postgraduate Certificate in Academic Practice guides students in applying contemporary theory and research methods in academic practice, with opportunities to reflect upon, evaluate, innovate and enhance practice in teaching, research and public engagement.

The programme will support students in applying research scholarship and evidence-based practices in learning, teaching and curricular design as well as the supervision and communication of research. While providing a robust foundation in pedagogic practice, the programme will enable students to personalise their learning through critical evaluation of own practices, practice-based action research, ultimately enhancing professional effectiveness. ### Course Aims

In providing this course, the University and the course team aim to provide a supportive and challenging framework within which you can acquire, develop and critically reflect upon the knowledge, understanding, practice, skills and values of an engaged Higher Education academic professional practitioner (aligned to the UK Professional Standards Framework (UKPSF)). The PGCAP course aims are fully aligned to the UKPSF and are to:

- support staff in facilitating high quality, responsive, inclusive and innovative learning and teaching experiences.
- equip staff new to academic practice with the knowledge, skills, behaviours and attitudes to be effective and confident in their learning, teaching, assessment and feedback practices.
- enable established staff to further enhance their knowledge, skills and behaviours as confident, effective practitioners.
- build a community of learning, teaching and research practitioners able to promote and showcase their expertise regionally, nationally and internationally.
- develop a culture which rewards exploration.

Course Learning Outcomes

The following statements define what students graduating from the PgC Academic Practice course will have been judged to have demonstrated in order to achieve the award. These statements, known as learning outcomes, have been formally approved as aligned with the generic qualification descriptor for level 7 awards as set out by the UK Quality Assurance Agency (QAA)<sup>6</sup>.

- Adopt a research, theoretically and evidence-informed approach to the development and enhancement of student focussed inclusive learning, teaching, assessment and curricula in line with the UKPSF. (K1-6 – V1-4, A1-5)
- Engage critically with interdisciplinary and disciplinary research and scholarship relating to academic practice in higher education. (K6, V3 A4-A5)
- Design, and deliver effective learning teaching and assessment activities through face-to-face, online, blended, guided, independent and group work (K2, K3, K4, v2, v4, A1, A2, A3, A4).
- Promote excellence in academic practice in relation to University of Suffolk strategies and wider HE context at national and international level (K6, V4, A5)

The PGCAP course has also identified five important values for a professional approach to academic practice that it would seek to promote to you, through all aspects of the course i.e. in its design, content, delivery and support mechanisms. These values fully align to the Professional Values of the UKPSF and concern:

<sup>6</sup> As set out in the QAA Frameworks for Higher Education Qualifications of UK Degree-Awarding Bodies \(2014\)

DEFINITIVE COURSE RECORD

1. The importance of HE professional practices which respect and enable the progression and empowerment of individual learners.
2. The promotion and implementation of equal opportunity practices to facilitate full participation by all learners, students and colleagues.
3. A commitment to incorporating the processes and outcomes of relevant research, scholarship and/or professional practice.
4. A commitment to engaging in and supporting communities of practice amongst learners or students and colleagues for mutual support and learning.
5. A commitment to continuing professional development and the critical evaluation of one's practice.

Also, the Pgcap learning outcomes are in alignment with QAA FHEQ Level 7 descriptors as, upon completion of the course, participants will have:

- A systematic understanding of knowledge, and a critical awareness of current problems and/or new insights, much of which is at, or informed by, the forefront of their academic discipline, field of study or area of professional practice.
- A comprehensive understanding of techniques applicable to their own research or advanced scholarship
- Originality in the application of knowledge, together with a practical understanding of how established techniques of research and enquiry are used to create and interpret knowledge in the discipline
- Conceptual understanding that enables the student:
  - to evaluate critically current research and advanced scholarship in the discipline
  - to evaluate methodologies and develop critiques of them and, where appropriate, to propose new hypotheses

Course Design

The design of this course has been guided by the following QAA Benchmarks / Professional Standards / UKPSF Competency Frameworks:

- UK Professional Standards Framework (UKPSF) for teaching and supporting learning in Higher Education (HEA, 2011)
