This definitive record sets out the essential features and characteristics of the BA (Hons) Applied Care Practice (Children & Families) course. The information provided is accurate for students entering level 6 in the 2023-24 academic year<sup>5</sup>.

Course Summary

This course enables students to explore the theories and concepts that underpin and challenge Children & Families practice and service provision locally, nationally and internationally. The programme has been developed to allow those in the Children & Families care sector to further develop existing skills, and develop a broad range of practice skills, knowledge and understanding within key subject areas and to acquire and enhance their professional values. The ‘applied’ nature of the course is also vital, in that the learning outcomes and aims of the modules require contextualisation through the application of theory
