

DEFINITIVE COURSE RECORD

Course Title	PgC International Business and Management
Awarding Bodies	University of Suffolk
Level of Award ¹	FHEQ Level 7
Professional, Statutory and Regulatory Bodies Recognition	None
Credit Structure ²	60 Credits at level 7
Mode of Attendance	Full-time and Part-time
Standard Length of Course ³	1 year full-time
Intended Award	PgC International Business and Management
Named Exit Awards	None
Entry Requirements ⁴	Typical offer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have an academic background in any discipline (Bachelors honours degree at least 2:2 or equivalent);Provide one academic employer reference
Delivering Institution	University of Suffolk

This definitive record sets out the essential features and characteristics of the PgC International Business and Management course. The information provided is accurate for students entering level 7 in the 2022-23 academic year⁵.

Course Summary

This PgC International Business and Management programme is aimed at graduates (from business and other non-business backgrounds) with the objective of helping them access knowledge and expertise of a professional standing and one that takes into consideration a critical approach to the subject of managing International business, The programme will help enhance the employment and career prospects of students who enrol on it. Such programmes are often recognised around the world as leading educational qualifications, ranking alongside MBAs. The overall aim of the PgC International Business and Management is to develop graduates of any discipline to become well-versed in International business and management-related matters and competent to work (and lead) in a challenging International business environment.

¹ For an explanation of the levels of higher education study, see the QAA Frameworks for Higher Education Qualifications of UK Degree-Awarding Bodies \(2014\)

² All academic credit awarded as a result of study at the University adheres to the Higher education credit framework for England.

³ Where the course is delivered both full-time and part-time, the standard length of course is provided for the full-time mode of attendance only. The length of the part-time course is variable and dependent upon the intensity of study. Further information about mode of study and maximum registration periods can be found in the Framework and Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Awards.

⁴ Details of standard entry requirements can be found in the Admissions Policy and further details about Disclosure and Barring Checks (DBS) can be found on the University's DBS webpage.

⁵ The University reserves the right to make changes to course content, structure, teaching and assessment as outlined in the Admissions Policy.

DEFINITIVE COURSE RECORD

Course Aims

- To offer an innovative, dynamic and flexible programme that critically considers developments in the academic study of International Business and Management and the changing contexts of International Business and Management in a globalised world;
- To critically explore cultural and social constructions in International Business and Management and the implications that they have had and continue to have on the business environment;
- To improve students' knowledge of the complexity of understanding the relationship between, International Business and Management. Its ideologies and the responsibilities of managers within the workplace;
- To develop analytical skills to identify the links between the functional areas in management, management practices, organisations, and the international business setting;
- To provide robust theoretical frameworks for students to develop an integrated and critically aware understanding of International Business and Management, and to cultivate a critical and analytical approach to contemporary methodological advances in International Business and Management research;
- To develop in students a range of intellectual skills reflecting both the ethos of lifelong learning and the rigour required at Level 7: a high level of student autonomy and self-direction in order to facilitate the student to demonstrate initiative, originality alongside integrity and ethical judgement in their advanced scholarship and to become influential and effective specialists in the field of International Business and Management.

Course Learning Outcomes

The following statements define what students graduating from the PgC International Business and Management course will have been judged to have demonstrated in order to achieve the award. These statements, known as learning outcomes, have been formally approved as aligned with the generic qualification descriptor for level 7 awards as set out by the UK Quality Assurance Agency (QAA)⁶.

The PgC International Business and Management is awarded to students who upon completion will be able to demonstrate:

1. an understanding of relevant knowledge about organisations, their external context and how they are managed
2. application of relevant knowledge to situations taking account of its relationship and interaction with other areas of the business or organisation
3. awareness of current issues in business and management which is informed by research and practice in the field
4. an understanding of appropriate techniques sufficient to allow investigation into

DEFINITIVE COURSE RECORD

relevant business and management issues

5. application of knowledge, together with an understanding of how established techniques of research and enquiry are used to develop and interpret knowledge in business and management
6. ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing, using a range of media.

Course Design

The design of this course has been guided by the following QAA Benchmark:

- Master's Degrees in Business and Management (2015)

Course Structure

The PgC International Business and Management comprises modules at level 7.

Module specifications for each of these modules are included within the course handbook, available to students on-line at the beginning of each academic year.

	Module	Credits	Module Type ⁷
Level 7
	International Business (IB)	20	Mandatory
	Business Research Methods	20	Optional
	Strategic International Marketing (SIM)	20	Optional
	Managing People Effectively in an International Context (MPE)	20	Optional
	Managerial Economics and Finance (MEF)	20	Optional
	Innovative Entrepreneurial Society: new business models (IES)	20	Optional
	Global Operations and Supply Chain Management (GOSCM)	20	Optional

Awards

On successful completion of 60 credits, students will be awarded a PgC International Business and Management.

Course Delivery

The course is delivered at Ipswich. Students studying full-time on PgC International Business and Management are likely to have approximately 10 contact hours per week. The contact hours will include links to video, podcasts, additional reading and blended activities. Students will be expected to engage in collaborative learning with peers through the discussion board in Brightspace. Students will normally be expected to undertake 26 hours of independent study in an average week, but should be prepared for this to vary based on assignment deadlines and class exercises.

Course Assessment

⁷ Modules are designated as either mandatory (M), requisite (R) or optional (O). For definitions, see the Framework and Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Awards

DEFINITIVE COURSE RECORD

A variety of assessments will be used on the course to enable students to experience and adapt to different assessment styles. The assessment methods used will be appropriate to assess each module's intended learning outcomes. Assessment on the course overall will be 100% coursework (including essays, reports and research projects).

Course Team

The academic staff delivering this course are drawn from a team that includes teaching specialists and current practitioners. All staff are qualified in their subjects with their own specialist knowledge to contribute.

Course Costs

Students undertaking PgC International Business and Management will be charged tuition fees as detailed below.

Student Group	Tuition Fees
Full-time UK/EU	£3,155
Part-time UK/EU	£1,055 per 20 credit module
Full-time International	£4,665

Payment of tuition fees is due at the time of enrolment and is managed in accordance with the Tuition Fee Policy.

There is no regular requirement for students to pay additional course fees. Where supplementary activities are offered there may be a small charge to cover their cost (for example, for transport).

Academic Framework and Regulations

This course is delivered according to the Framework and Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Awards and other academic policies and procedures of the University and published on the website.