DEFINITIVE COURSE RECORD

The course provides an interesting range of opportunities for study in differing schools and, most importantly, it creates the opportunity to work full time within a school environment and to be a part of the school community. Throughout the trainee’s learning, we have embedded the proposal of hypotheses and theories and the testing of these through reasoning, research and practical teaching: they will become reflective practitioners. Trainees will learn to develop the application of critical reasoning to create arguments that provoke new ideas and take their understanding forwards, expressing these in clear ways that can be accessed by others. They will make concrete links between theory and practice and will gain a detailed understanding of the ways in which children learn.

Course Aims
The major aims of the programme are:

- To prepare trainee teachers effectively as a specialist in their chosen subject
- To produce teachers who are confident and competent in the craft of teaching as well as being able to contribute within an active school environment
- To facilitate trainee teachers in their development of critical inquiry
- To engage trainee teachers in the application of educational theory and current research

Course Learning Outcomes
The following statements define what students graduating from the Postgraduate Certificate in Education [North Essex Teacher Training Secondary SCITT] course will have been judged to have demonstrated in order to achieve the award. These statements, known as learning outcomes, have been formally approved as aligned with the generic qualification descriptor for level 7 awards as set out by the UK Quality Assurance Agency (QAA).

The key generic objectives for the PGCE award are for Trainee Teachers:

1. To show autonomous and independent learning
2. To analyse critically and evaluate in depth subject material, related research and their own practice
3. To demonstrate a thorough understanding of the application of theory to practice
4. To demonstrate originality and creativity of thought and approach
5. To become critical reflective practitioners

Trainees who complete all assignments to a satisfactory standard are awarded the PGCE which requires them to reach a standard over and above that required for QTS. Trainees who do not complete the assignments may, in exceptional circumstances, be awarded QTS only.

As a result of the programme, it is intended that trainee teachers will achieve the following objectives:
